

INTRAMURAL DODGEBALL RULES

Main Objective: To have fun, be a great sport, be a team players, earn more points than the other team during the Intramural time. (12:20-12:50)

Rules:

1. Your team earns one point when everyone on the other team is out
2. Each team begins the game against the side wall of the gym, the balls are placed along the middle line, the referee says 'GO', and the players run for the balls.
3. Balls are thrown at the other team until one teams earns a point.
4. Players must stay inside the basketball court. Balls must be thrown from inside the court. If you step outside basketball court to retrieve a ball you must enter from the back of the court.
5. You are out when:
 - a. You get hit with the ball – it must be a direct hit, no deflections, and you may NOT use the ball to block/deflect balls thrown at you, unless you catch the same deflected ball before it touches anything else
 - b. Head shots count, if you get hit your out
 - c. You throw a ball that is caught by the other team (if it is deflected into the air with a body part, any person on their team is allowed to catch it)
 - d. You step over or touch the floor across the center line
6. If you are out of the game and sent to the sidelines by the rules listed above, you must stand in a line in the order you were hit. You must stand outside of basketball court on change-room or stage side. You can't touch balls on playing surface, if balls are out of bounds you may direct them back into play.
7. Ways to get your own teammates back into the game:
 - a. If you catch a thrown ball, the first person in line on your team re-joins the game
 - b. If you hit the target (the wall inside the black rectangle closest to the basketball backboard) everyone on your team re-joins the game
8. If you come late to play, you must stand on the sidelines as the most recent person hit, then may join in the game as per #7
